

Dan Kimball guides you step-by-step through making sense of the most misunderstood, difficult, and disturbing Bible passages. Whether you're a Christian, a doubter, or someone exploring the Bible for the first time, this study is your guide to understanding and contextualizing passages in the Bible that seem to be backwards on topics related to women, science, violence, slavery, and world religions.

We hope you can join us for our new course looking at the book by Dan Kimball, How (not) to read the bible. The course will start on Monday 12th September at 7.30pm.

We will be meeting here at Craiglockhart Parish Church.

During the evening we will watch a video from the author talking about each subject covered in the book then there will be a chance to chat together about what has been said.

The format is very informal and participants are free to join in the chat or sit back and take it all in.

How (not) to read the bible runs over 6 sessions the dates are below

Session 1 Never read a bible verse 3rd October

Session 2 Stranger things 10th October

Session 3 Boys Club Christianity 17th October

Session 4 Jesus riding a dinosaur 24th October

Session 5 My God can beat up your God 31st October

Session 6 Rated NC-17 7th November

The book is available to buy if you want to follow along.
